Congregational Church Notes

The midweek service will be held in the chapel tonight at 7.30. The topic is, "The Christmas Gift." We shall find this appropriate for the season.

The Christmas exercises and tree under the auspices of the Sunday school will be in the church Friday evening.
 There will be songs, recitations, etc., by the children and others. All are cordially invited.

The annual meeting of the church, according to our by-laws, will be held in the vestry Saturday afternoon. Because it is Christmas day, after organization, the meeting will be adjourned to Wednesday, Dec. 29.

Morning worship Sunday at the usual hour. There will be some excellent music and the pastor's sermon will have for its subject, "Spending Our Years: How?" All not worshipping elsewhere will be welcomed.

The Sunday school will meet at the close of morning worship. Classes for all ages already organized and all who can be urged to join. The new quar-terlies for the coming year will be ready for distribution.

Interest in the Citizen's class continues without abatement. We hope to see all the men in the class present.

The Sunday evening service in the church at 7.15. The pastor will speak upon a theme of interest and importance. A good service of song at the beginning. Come and enjoy it with us.

The annual business meeting of the Ladies' Aid society held in the chapel last week indicated it was in a fine condition and had done excellent work the past year. The officers were re-elected.

The Woman's Missionary society held its annual business meeting last week. One hundred and fifteen dollars has been raised and sent to the respective treasurers for home and foreign work, and three barrels of clothing estimated to be well worth $85 have been shipped to mission schools in the South. Mrs. Magoon was elected president for the year to come.

The music rendered by the large choir at both morning and evening services Sunday has been spoken of by many as being especially fine. The large congregation present certainly showed their appreciation of it.

Methodist Episcopal Church Notes.

Prayer service to night at 7.30. Let us make room for the Christ-Child.

Sunday services. Sermon at 10.30 a. m., by Rev. O. J. Anderson of Derby. Bible school following the morning service to which all are invited. Junior League at 3 o'clock. There will be no evening service.

On Friday evening there will be a Christmas tree and appropriate exercises of song and recitations by the children, which everybody will enjoy.
 All, young and old, or any without church affiliations, are invited to use the tree and to be present at the exercises.

The young ladies' glee club furnished the music for a very enjoyable Christmas concert Sunday evening. The solos and duets were exceptionally well rendered. The program was as follows: "The Birthday of Our King," chorus; scripture reading and prayer;
 "The Star of Bethlehem," Hazel Shepherd; "Angels from the Realm of Light," chorus; "On to the King," Viva Shepherd; "Tell Me the Story Sweet and True," Freda Stearns and chorus; "The Angels' Song," Marion Bartlett; "The Wise Men Came," Persis and Beatrice Stearns; "Star Divine," chorus; "The Christmas Star," Alice Smith and chorus; remarks by the pastor; "Shine Blessed Star, above Us," chorus.

The Philathea class held their Christmas meeting at the parsonage Saturday night. The social committee, Messes Alice Smith and Mary Blake, decorated the rooms and arranged a well-laden Christmas tree. The following program in charge of Miss Jennie Young was given: Instrumental music, Mrs. Donaldson; reading, "The Fourth Wise Man," Mrs. Smithers; reading, "A Christmas Story," Lilla McMullen; solo, "Sing Me the Rosary," Viva Shepherd; a Christmas reading, Persis Lyon; instrumental music, Ila Allen. The class was glad to welcome back Miss Mildred Ordway and Bernice Lincoln. During the social hour, which was much enjoyed, the hostess served ice cream and Christmas cakes.

The Christmas duet sung by Mrs.
 Dickens and F. J. Kinney Sunday morning was much appreciated.

The Bellows Falls Times prints a very complimentary news article telling of the call Rev. G. W. Burke, formerly of the M. E. church here, has had to the Northfield M. E. church and of his going. Mr. Burke went from here to Bellows Falls in 1913, where he has had a very successful pastorate.

The tournament of the Orleans club is progressing as well as could be expected at this season of the year.

WHAT to GET For HIM

The one important thing in giving Christmas presents to a man, old or young, is to give him something he really wants, that's the important thing in giving to anybody.

The one really difficult thing with a man is to find out what he really wants. You can't find out from him, he either don't know what he wants or won't say, doesn't want anything.

Just come in here and look over a store full of things that he would like to have without asking him a question.
